UNITED We stand

Sermon Series: Summer Term 2024 - The Book of 1 Corinthians

Church is a people with purpose ...

But what does it mean to be fully united in the purpose that Jesus give us, and how do we do that here at All Saints and St. Mary's?

The book of 1 Corinthians is a letter from Paul to a church that he started which addresses several difficult topics, a variety of concerns, and with contrasting views and expectations which was causing division. This is most likely one of at least four letters that Paul wrote (we have two of them as part of Scripture). It lays down principles, and instructions that can be applied to every local expression of church. At its heart is a call for them to stand united for Jesus: God's church, God's way.

The hope for this series is to be more than a general Bible Study of what we can learn from the book of 1 Corinthians. We are deliberately focussing on some parts of the letter more than others (but that doesn't stop you doing your own study on the other parts). Ultimately in this series we are asking the question: What might God want to say at this time to us here at All Saints and St. Mary's as we seek to follow him together?

What might God want to say at this time to us here at All Saints and St. Mary's as we seek to follow him together?

NAME: ZENA HUSSEIN - CLASS: GRADE FOUR

Zena was in Grade Three last year and her class teacher was Tr Phyllis. She is currently in Grade Four. Zena is a calm girl who enjoys school and appears well rested and ready for each day's activities. She also shows enthusiasm for classroom activities. She demonstrates her caring nature when helping her peers when they need assistance. She is also courteous and shows good manners in the classroom. She is thoughtful, insightful and thorough in written and verbal communication.

She does not give up when facing a task that is difficult and always does her best. She listens to the comments and ideas of others without interrupting. She enjoys conversations with friends during free periods.

She actively participates in group discussions through insightful comments. She actively participates in outdoor activities. Well done Zena!

NAME: ERICK OCHIENG - CLASS: GRADE TWO

Erick was in Grade One last year and his class teacher was Tr Meshack. He is currently in Grade Two. He is an obedient and jovial learner who follows class and school rules as instructed. He is keen while doing his class work and homework. He writes neatly and he follows the teacher's instructions during the lessons. He is obedient to the bells and he ensures he is in the right place at the right time. Erick is a responsible boy who takes care of his writing materials and personal items. He likes playing rugby and he shows great interest in learning new rugby skills during the training sessions. He also enjoys other games and participates actively in athletics and football. He enjoys music lessons and singing along with the classmates. He has also mastered different types of songs in their contextual meaning and he is able to demonstrate different elements of dance. He listens to Bible stories very attentively and he is able to recite Bible verses in class and during the pastoral programme sessions. Erick wishes to become an engineer when he grows up. I am very pleased with his progress.

PRAYERS

Please continue to pray for healing and recovery for Banaf & Dave, Jim & Pauline, Jean Brooman and Sarah Libby, Lucy's mum & Dad and for Jason.

“For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.” (Romans 8:38,9 NIV)

Loving Lord,

For all agents of healing we thank you.

For the truly miraculous, for doctors and nurses, for our friends who pray with actions as well as words. For the amazing peace that comes from knowing your presence throughout any suffering and for the knowledge that you bring wholeness in this world and throughout eternity.

Amen

Please pray for the couples who are getting married at All Saint's this year and who are starting to have their Banns of marriage read in May, for Lauren and Joshua and for Tanya and Matthew both marrying in July.

Reading

Psalm 145: 1- 9a

I will exalt you, my God the King;
I will praise your name for ever and ever.
Every day I will praise you and extol your name for ever and ever.
Great is the Lord and most worthy of praise;
his greatness no one can fathom.
One generation commends your works to another;
they tell of your mighty acts.
They speak of the glorious splendour of your majesty— and I will meditate on your wonderful works.
They tell of the power of your awesome works—and I will proclaim your great deeds.
They celebrate your abundant goodness and joyfully sing of your righteousness.
The Lord is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and rich in love.

The Lord is good to all;
